

Lansdowne Road Cows

Cows mean "country" and we got em on the Lansdowne Rd. The Pulleys on the NE side raise long-haired Scottish Highland cattle, on the SW side are the Johnson Herford's. Just the sight of cattle and hay fields can make an old farm boy smile. A short drive along Lansdowne brings back the good old days. Bikers love this crossing from Digby to Bear River. The smell of new mown hay and wild flowers on ninety mile an hour, motorcycle ride nights is summer at its' best.

Those cows can make yer day.

One of Bear River's Best

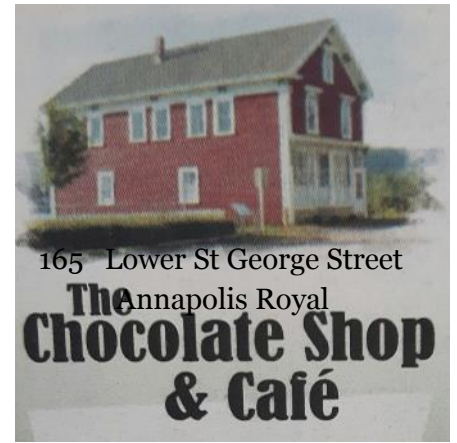

Sometimes an inspiring word can change your whole week or even your entire life. Sunday morning may not be the time of day you are ready for this kind of inspiration; but there are few who could deny that Rev Earl Waterman, Pastor at Bear River United Baptist Church can deliver such inspirational words. He celebrated another Birthday July 5th so it might be a good idea to go see him speak while he is still in his prime. To my knowledge these messages are not recorded so it's pretty well see him live or be out of luck. That's every Sunday, 10 am at the historic Church on the west side of Bear River hill; the one with the lighted rotunda and bright welcoming bell.

SHATTERED The Band

"Blair Cromwell, local guitarist and studio recording artist has put a band together. They're called "Shattered", and are about to release a studio recording titled "Bear River Bound." The other members are Jack Fuller, vocals and guitar, Gary Hurlock, bass guitar, and Evan Nemeth on drums and percussion. Look for all the details in our next issue."
