Bear River Starcia McCue
902-467-4198 Snow Shoveling

Two Entrepreneurs showing persistence and ingenuity. Starcia McCue from Bear River and Gary Mullen from Digby are not only dreaming of things they might do but get right down to putting one foot in front of the other, getting off their butts, and actually doing something. With the latest scourge of snow they have put their hands to a very practical and age old solution to making a buck. It doesn't look like they will be out of business anytime soon. Being an Entrepreneur takes a certain kind of person who has the imagination to see the future and is not afraid of the hard work it might take to get there. They are people who will always have an exciting journey and never a dull day. Hats off to these two rugged individuals, a couple of real Entrepreneurs.

George Sloane..Musician and Good Guy
Many of you may have seen George around Bear River and Digby over the past few years. As a come-from-away he certainly has solidified his presence here. Always a cheerful smile and friendly greeting, he even makes the locals feel welcome. An excellent guitar and mandolin player as well as MC and all around co-ordinator of events from benefits to Cherry Carnivals, he keeps busy. Between his part time jobs delivering flyers and keeping the Church warm he made an impressive ride across the Rocky Mountains from Victoria to Calgary on his bicycle last summer. Lately you might see him and Alex, his musical partner, at the Sissiboo Cafe on a Thursday afternoon. I know he keeps his crib game polished up with Walter Ruggles. Walter helped with the restoration of their Upper River Road home when he and partner Susan Friend first moved to Bear River. Now they live on Pleasant Street and George does his musical rehearsing in his studio there. (see ad on page 2) Ecclectica is his duo group with Rev. Alex Constable on flute, saxophone and percussion. You can be sure they put on a good show with their diverse collection of blues, jazz, rock and folk music. I wonder how they decided on the name Ecclectica ??? hmm

"Sydney" The K-Pal of The Month
from Sydney/Halifax NS

See Issue 5, page 2 at digbycafe.ca for the inside scoop on what K-Pal is all about.

January is a slow month in the tourist trade. Rob is sound asleep in Niffen Hollow while the mouse family check out the art work down at Flight of Fancy. JoAnn and Terry went south for the winter so forget getting any hand made chocolate to chase away your winter blues. Speaking of blues, there's lots of the music variety every Thursday afternoon 1 to 3 at Sissiboo Cafe with George and Alex. They'll also be at Myrtle and Rosies, Jan 26th at 7 pm. Special guests Harold Clapp and Sharon Constable turn up the heat. You can be sure the artists are cozy in their studios creating treasures (see page 3). The snow plow will be in Greenland eventually and we'll keep waiting for the old elm tree to blow down so we can get some firewood. Otherwise, it's bundle up, grab the shovel and dig your car out, one more time.
Happy Winter Everybody!
